Introducing docuMOP

Simplifying Your Life & Home

Life is hectic. Isn't there some way to pull everything together? It should be simpler!

SITUATIONS JUST SEEM TO ARISE AND BECOME URGENT, EVERYTHING'S URGENT

If you could just get your answer right away and be done with the item, it would be great!

- You need someone's number now but your phone doesn't have it.
 - Your full address book is home, but you're not.
 - If you just had it, this would be so simple and done with.
- What's your insurance agent's number and the car's VIN? The cars been stolen.
- Something is broken and you're wondering, "Didn't we buy that just last year?"
- "Didn't we just have this serviced? It should be warranty, what date was it repaired?"
- "How does the sprinkler control panel work?"
- "Lights are out in the garage, what circuit breaker is that?"
- "We need animal control quick, what's their number?"
- "When were the brakes last changed?"

It's not that the answer isn't known. It just isn't readily available. It's somewhere, but where? Help!

docuMOP is your SOLUTION, providing PEACE OF MIND you'll be proud to share.

- All in One Place – YOUR docuMOP

docuMOP was created by a professional engineer to solve the documentation and procedure needs of Corporate Information Technology Centers. Expanding docuMOP to Life & Home was natural as our home lives have similar needs and are more complex. For those curious, the name docuMOP combines the word documentation and the term Methods of Procedure which is a written process documenting how to do critical things. Thank you for considering and using docuMOP. We hope it simplifies your life.
